Monthly Newsletter

March 2017

The March 2017 JRA Monthly Newsletter is an e-mail service for members.

Save the Date: 2017 JRA Spring Craft Weekend, April 1,2

Not too late to share and sign up for our 2017 JRA Spring Craft Weekend. Our co-chairs Reba Immergut and Norman Mitchell, as well as our other volunteers, have been working diligently on assuring a fun and craft-filled weekend. This year the JRA will be honoring five new Masters of the Medium. See you there.

2017 JRA Masters of the Medium

The following distinguished artists will be recognized as the 2017 Masters of the Medium at Spring Craft Weekend: Chris Gustin, Toots Zynsky, Gerhardt Knodel, Marilyn da Silva, and Tommy Simpson. These artists have produced a body of work that expanded and innovated the boundaries of their crafts. In addition, the artists have added with their time, support, and encouragement to the success of many events and venues that make the continuation and growth of craft art possible. Please sign up for SCW events and get to share in the excitement of new discoveries.

Judith James Exhibition at New Bedford Museum of Art

At the 2105 Spring Craft Weekend brunch, many of remember Master of the Medium Michael James speaking so eloquently and lovingly about his wife Judith who was suffering from dementia. She died later in August of 2105. Judith was also a nationally recognized fiber artist, who hailed from New England and worked there before the James moved to the International Quilt Study Center in Lincoln, NE. The New Bedford Museum of Art mounted an exhibition of her works and influences, In Touch: The Expressive Magic of Judith James.
